“We are thrilled to join forces with the El Paso Public Libraries to create an engaging and educational experience for our community's youth,” said Animal Services Director Terry Kebschull. “By combining the magic of storytelling with the joy of interacting with animals, we aim to inspire a new generation of animal lovers and responsible pet owners.”

Each Kitty and Doggie Storytime event will feature passionate storytellers who will captivate young audiences with enchanting tales of friendship and responsibility to educate on the commitment and compassion required in caring for a pet. After the storytelling session, families will have an opportunity to spend quality time with lovable cats and dogs, providing a hands-on experience that enhances their connection with animals.
