City Parks and Recreation Invites Community to Kids to Parks Day

EL PASO, Texas— The City of El Paso Park and Recreation Department invites the community to celebrate Kids to Parks Day from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, June 17 at the Sylvia A. Carreon Community Center, 709 Lomita Dr.

The free, family friendly event will feature outdoor and education games and activities for children of all ages. The event will include activities such as tug-of-war, sack races, soccer games and more!

In addition, there will be more than 25 booths from various local organizations including the El Paso Fire Department and El Paso Animal Services that will provide free microchips and free pet adoptions.

Families can enjoy a Bike Rodeo happening from 9 to 11 a.m. that will show children how to safety ride, repair, and maintain bicycles.

The event includes food trucks and live music.

About Kids to Parks Day

Kids to Parks Day is a national day of outdoor play celebrated yearly during the summer. Organized by National Park Trust, the day connects kids and families with their local, state, and national parks and public lands through thousands of parks events that promote discovery and exploration in the great outdoors.
