City Invites Community to Celebrate Parks and Recreation Month

City Offers Free Activities at Recreation Centers

EL PASO, Texas— The City of El Paso Parks and Recreation Department, invites the community to celebrate Parks and Recreation Month during July by visiting their neighborhood recreation center for a variety of free activities.

Parks and Recreation will be hosting a variety of activities all month long at the recreation centers including fairs, bingo, sports tournaments, workshops, and several other celebrations.

Parks and Recreation Month is an initiative of the National Recreation and Park Association (NRPA) and is celebrated every year in July.

To view a complete list of Parks and Recreation Month events or to learn more about the Parks and Recreation Department visit ElPasoTexas.gov/Parks and click on the Events tab.

About the National Recreation and Park Association

The National Recreation and Park Association (NRPA) is the leading not-for-profit organization dedicated to building strong, vibrant and resilient communities through the power of parks and recreation.

With more than 60,000 members, NRPA advances this mission by investing in and championing the work of park and recreational professionals and advocates – the catalysts for positive change in service of equity, climate-readiness, and overall health and well-being. For more information, visit www.nrpa.org. For digital access to NRPA's flagship publication, Parks & Recreation, visit www.ParksAndRecreation.org.
