El Paso Museum of Archaeology Expands Hours of Operations

EL PASO, Texas— The City of El Paso is thrilled to announce that starting today, Tuesday, June 4, the El Paso Museum of Archaeology (EPMArch) will be open to the public every Tuesday.

“Opening on Tuesdays will provide more opportunities for the public to explore our collections, trails, and programming,” said El Paso Museum of Archaeology Director Sebastian Ribas-Normand. “We hope people will visit more often and always view the museum as a welcoming community space both inside and outside.”

To celebrate, the El Paso Museum of Archaeology will host a series of special activities every Tuesday throughout June. From hands-on activities and guided tours to interactive presentations and educational programs, there will be something for visitors of all ages to enjoy.

The museum invites everyone to join in the fun every Tuesday in June.

Event announcements and details will be posted on the El Paso Museum of Archaeology’s social media platforms (Instagram and Facebook) and website www.EPMArch.org.

Located at 4301 Transmountain Rd., the El Paso Museum of Archaeology is free and open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday.

About the El Paso Museum of Archaeology

The El Paso Museum of Archaeology is dedicated to the narration, interpretation, and preservation of archaeological and anthropological artifacts through research, exhibits, education, and special programs, with a focus on the prehistory and culture of the El Paso area and the Southwest.
