Community Invited to Inaugural “Art in Eastwood Park”

EL PASO, Texas—The City’s Museums and Cultural Affairs and Parks and Recreation Department invites the community to participate in “Art in Eastwood Park” during the final weekend in June.

“Art in Eastwood Park” takes place from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday, June 29, and from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday, June 30, at Eastwood Park (commonly known as Album Park) at 10259 Album Ave.

Visitors can enjoy local shopping and entertainment along with family-friendly workshops from the El Paso Museum of Archaeology and the soon to open Mexican American Cultural Center. In addition, local artists will host printmaking and watercolor sessions with takeaways for visitors.

“We are thrilled to launch the inaugural Art in Eastwood Park event,” said Quality of Life Managing Director Ben Fyffe. “With more than 50 artisan vendors and hands-on interactive activities, the community will have the opportunity to connect with local artists and learn more about El Paso’s arts and cultural offerings. This event is not just about showcasing art; it’s about fostering a vibrant, creative community spirit that celebrates our diverse cultural heritage.”

The event is a collaboration from the City of El Paso between the Museums & Cultural Affairs Department, the Parks and Recreation Department, the Mexican American Cultural Center, and the El Paso Museum of Archaeology.
