City of El Paso Municipal Court Announces Citation Amnesty Period

Opportunity to Resolve Outstanding Traffic or Parking Citations and Save Money

EL PASO, Texas—The El Paso Municipal Court is offering a Citation Amnesty Period from Monday, February 17, through Saturday, March 8, giving individuals the opportunity to pay outstanding traffic and parking citations while waiving additional fees.

During this limited-time program, the Municipal Court will waive collection and delinquent fees for unpaid citations. To take advantage of the savings, citations must be paid in full before the amnesty period ends.

“Our goal with the Citation Amnesty Program is to provide people with an opportunity to resolve their citations, restore their driving records, and avoid further penalties,” said El Paso Municipal Court Interim Director Annabelle Casas. “We encourage everyone with outstanding traffic or parking citations to take advantage of this opportunity.”

How to Pay Citations

Citations can be paid through the following methods:

- In person at any Municipal Court Bond Office (locations listed below)
- Online (www.elpasotexas.gov/municipal-courts or www.citepayusa.com)
- By phone at (915) 212-0232
- By mail: El Paso Municipal Court
810 E. Overland
El Paso, TX 79901
