Boo at the Zoo Returns with Spooky Fun at the El Paso Zoo & Botanical Gardens

El Paso's Favorite Halloween Event for Children

EL PASO, Texas—The El Paso Zoo and Botanical Gardens is excited to invite the community to its beloved fall tradition, Boo at the Zoo, happening on Saturday, October 26, and Sunday, October 27. All Halloween activities and treat stations are FREE with paid admission or for Zoo members.

Sponsored by Raising Cane's, this fun-filled, family-friendly event offers a not-so-spooky Halloween experience, perfect for children and parents alike.

Guests are encouraged to dress in their favorite costumes and trick-or-treat through the Zoo, all while enjoying a variety of enchanting activities and entertainment.

The weekend promises a “spooktacular” lineup of fun, including:

- Meet-and-greets with beloved characters, from princesses to friends from a galaxy far, far away
- Halloween dance and costume contests with prizes provided by Raising Cane's
- Themed displays featuring silly skeletons, Super Mario, and Candy Land
- Special Halloween shows at the Wildlife Amphitheater with magic, acrobatics, and eerie dance performances
- Creepy stilt walkers adding to the festive atmosphere
- A Halloween DJ spinning tunes at the Asia Gardens

In addition, children can explore a glow-in-the-dark bug room and witness exciting animal enrichments throughout the weekend.

For more information on Boo at the Zoo or to purchase a membership for your family or as the best holiday gift ever, visit www.ElPasoZoo.org.

About the El Paso Zoo and Botanical Gardens

The El Paso Zoo and Botanical Gardens stretch across 35-acres and house animals representing over 220 species, including critically endangered species. Accredited by the Association of Zoos & Aquariums (AZA), the El Paso Zoo celebrates the value of animals and natural resources. It creates opportunities for people to rediscover their connection to nature.
