El Paso, Texas – In the early morning of Sunday, November 26, 2023, Officers responded to a call of a burglary of a vehicle in progress. As Officers arrived at the scene they found a 15-year-old male wearing a ski mask in the parking lot. As the Officers attempted to investigate, the 15-year-old ran from the Officers. The Officers followed the suspect in the patrol car when 17-year-old Moises Isaia Escalante accelerated and drove a Hyundai Sonata into the driver-side door of the patrol car in an attempt to escape from the Officers. The Officers were able to exit the car and take both into custody. The Hyundai was found to have been stolen earlier from a different address. Escalante was charged with Unauthorized Use of a Motor Vehicle and booked into the El Paso County Jail. He was issued a $7,500 bond by Jail Magistrate Judge Priddy. The 15-year-old was charged with Evading Arrest and or Detention and turned over to the Juvenile Probation Department. The Officers were not injured in the incident. The investigation continues, and additional charges are pending.
