EL PASO, Texas—On January 17, 2025, at around 2:30 a.m., police were patrolling the area of Edgemere and Lee Trevino when they heard shots fired. The officers began to check the area. The officers began to drive eastbound on Edgemere when they observed a white car traveling east on Edgemere. As the officers were pulling up the vehicle, they observed a person pointing a rifle out the window at the officers. Officers attempted a traffic stop. However, the vehicle fled from the officers. Parga crashed the car he was driving after a short vehicle pursuit. Parga, Kish, and Espindola fled on foot after the crash. Officers were able to take all three into custody. All three were booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility on the above-listed charges. Police recovered a rifle and two handguns from the vehicle.
