EL PASO, Texas— On January 28, 2025, at approximately 12:47 PM, El Paso police responded to a burglary in progress call in the 1400 block of Via Quijano. Upon arrival, officers located the suspect, identified as Vega, who fled on foot near Hornado Middle School with a handgun. Through further investigation, officers determined that Vega had been checking car door handles and entering unlocked homes. He was later found in possession of several stolen items, including a handgun, a purse, a wallet, and a Texas Identification card, all of which were taken from nearby residences. Vega was then booked into the El Paso County Detention facility with the above-listed bonds.
