Charge #1: Possession of Controlled Substance Penalty Group 1/1-B>+1G<4G

EL PASO, Texas— On February 15th, police officers patrolling the area observed Schimek and Cortes sitting in a vehicle in the Valero gas station parking lot at 11101 Gateway West. One officer approached Schimek, who was sitting in the driver's seat. While contacting Schimek, the officer observed a baggie of narcotics. Officers requested a K-9 officer for assistance. Through a thorough investigation, officers located methamphetamine and pills suspected to be Fentanyl. Officers also located drug paraphernalia on both subjects. Schimek and Cortes were arrested for the possession of methamphetamines and booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility. Both arrestees face additional charges pending the lab results of the suspected Fentanyl pills.
