Aggravated Assault on a Public Servant

Date: February 3rd, 2025
Location: Intersection of Mesa and Sunland Park
Offender: Angel Wolfgang Trevizo, 33-year-old El Paso TX Resident

Victim: 6-year Veteran of the El Paso Police Department

El Paso, Texas – On Monday February 3rd, 2025 a 6-year Veteran of the El Paso Police Department was investigating a traffic hazard. During that investigation the officer observed a separate incident where Trevizo exited his vehicle and confronted a driver who was stopped at the intersection. The officer attempted to intervene for the safety of the individual being confronted by Trevizo. The offender entered his vehicle and disobeyed the officer's orders and drove away almost striking the officer. The officer fired his weapon striking Trevizo.

Trevizo was treated for his injuries by officers on scene and later at a local hospital. Crimes Against Persons continued with the investigation and separate investigations were conducted by The Texas Rangers and the El Paso Police Department Shooting Review Team. A warrant was issued for Aggravated Assault on a Public Servant with a bond of $100,000 issued by Judge Myers. Angel Wolfgang Trevizo was released from the hospital and booked for the listed warrant.
